8th HMS Ajax Visit

40th Anniversary Celebrations

August 26 – 28, 2016

History

In 1976, the 8th HMS Ajax Frigate and its crew made a special visit to the Town of Ajax. It was the first and only visit of a HMS Ajax – the Town's namesake – to Ajax.

A large ship is visible in the background, sailing on a body of water. The ship has a prominent mast with various antennas and equipment. The water is calm, and the sky is a pale, hazy blue. A semi-transparent blue horizontal band is overlaid across the middle of the image, containing white text. The overall scene is serene and maritime.

To mark the 40th Anniversary of this visit, the Town will be hosting various celebrations from August 26 to 28, 2016.

Memorial Wall Unveiling

Aug. 26 – 2 p.m.
Veterans' Point Garden

Honouring veterans who served on the HMS Ajax, HMS Achilles & HMS Exeter during the Battle of the Riverplate in WWII, as well as those who served on 8th HMS Ajax in 1976.

First time in history all 4,500+ names will be located on one memorial Wall in both Canada & Britain.

Special Fly-past
C130 Hercules of the Canadian Air Division

Special Guests:
Diversity Champions to connect history & present day community.
